EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ORDER

Victor M. Crown has filed motions in at least 23 cases in which he is not a party in the Northern District of Illinois. Although Mr. Crown has been advised by several judges that he lacks standing to file motions in cases in which he has no involvement, he has not been deterred.

It is the judgment of the Executive Committee that reasonable and necessary restraints must be imposed upon Mr. Crown's ability to file new civil cases; or motions in cases in which he is not a party in this District.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE in its capacity as the supervisor of the assignment of cases, that ------

1) Mr. Victor M. Crown , or anyone acting on his behalf, is enjoined from filing motions in any action or proceeding in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois without first obtaining leave by way of the following procedures:

   a) Any materials Mr. Crown, or anyone acting on his behalf, wishes to submit for filing shall be delivered to Room 2050, Office of the Clerk at the Courthouse in Chicago. Only the Clerk or deputies specifically designated by the Clerk may accept such documents.

   b) Where the document submitted is a complaint, it shall be accompanied by a motion captioned "Motion Seeking Leave to File Pursuant to Order of Executive Committee." That motion shall, in addition to requesting leave to file the complaint, include a sworn statement certifying that the claims raised by or on behalf of Mr. Crown in the complaint are new claims never before raised in any federal court.

   c) Whenever Mr. Crown submits a document for filing, the clerk or designated deputy shall accept the papers, stamp them received, docket them, and forward them to the Executive Committee.

2) The Executive Committee will examine any documents submitted by or on behalf of Mr. Crown to determine whether they should be filed.

3) If Mr. Crown seeks leave to proceed in forma pauperis, the Committee will also determine if such leave should be granted. The Committee will deny leave to file any complaints if they are legally frivolous or are merely duplicative of matters already litigated. The Committee may deny leave to file any complaints not filed in conformity with this order.

4) If the Executive Committee enters an order denying leave to file the materials, the clerk shall retain the order and a copy of the materials in the miscellaneous file and cause a copy of the order to be mailed to Mr. Crown.

5) If the Executive Committee enters an order granting leave to file the materials, the clerk will cause the materials to be stamped filed as of the date of the order and shall cause the case to be assigned to a judge in accordance with the rules. The clerk shall also cause a copy of the order to be mailed to Mr. Crown.

6) Mr. Crown's failure to comply with this order may, within the discretion of the Executive Committee, result in his being held in contempt of court and punished accordingly.

7) Nothing in this order shall be construed -----

   a) to affect Mr. Crown's ability to defend himself in any criminal action,

   b) to deny Mr. Crown access to the federal courts through the filing of a petition for a writ of habeas corpus or other extraordinary writ, or

   c) to deny Mr. Crown access to the United States Court of Appeals or the United States Supreme Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the Clerk shall cause to be created and maintained a miscellaneous file with the title "In the matter of Victor M. Crown " and case number 07 C 2533. The miscellaneous file shall serve as the repository of this order, all documents proffered for filing by Mr. Crown covered by the terms of this order for which authority to file is not granted, and any order or minute order entered pursuant to this order. The Clerk will also maintain a miscellaneous docket associated with the file. All orders retained in the file will be entered on that docket following standard docketing procedures. A brief entry will be made on the docket indicating the receipt of any materials from Mr. Crown.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the Clerk shall cause a copy of this order to be mailed to Mr. Crown at P.O. Box 136, Park Ridge, Illinois 60068-0136, the address given by Mr. Crown in documents received on January 5, 2007. Such mailing shall be by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.
