FOR THE COURT

Chief Judge

Dated at Chicago, Illinois this 31st day of October, 2018.

IOP21. After-Hours Arrest Warrant

If an after-hour arrest warrant is needed by a United States Probation Officer, the Officer shall prepare Probation Form 12C and present it to the duty magistrate judge for review. If the petition is granted, the United States Probation Officer shall provide a copy of the signed Probation Form 12C to the United States Marshals Service as proof of the order issuing the warrant. The United States Probation Officer shall forward the original Form 12C to the Clerk of Court the next business day to file the document. The United States Probation Officer shall also notify the district judge who was assigned to the underlying criminal case for which a warrant was issued the next business day.
