

U.S. District Court Hibbler Memorial Pro Se Assistance Program

The Pro Se Assistance Program is staffed by attorneys from LAF as well as volunteer attorneys, in cooperation with the District Court, with special funding from the Chicago Bar Foundation. It serves pro se litigants in civil cases filed or to be filed in the federal court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern and Western Divisions. A Program attorney is available to provide you with limited legal assistance with your case.

The Program attorney will:

- Assist you by providing information about federal court procedure and the law as it applies to the facts as you describe them;
- Explain the status of your case;
- Assist you in understanding and in helping you to prepare certain of your own pleadings, motions, or other court documents;
- Assist you in accessing other sources of information about your legal issues;
- Refer you, in appropriate cases, to other providers of civil legal services or to social service agencies; and
- Keep any personal information you provide confidential, unless you agree in writing to its disclosure.

The Program attorney will not:

- Appear on your behalf in court;
- Research or write court documents for you;
- Conduct any investigation into the facts of your case;
- Communicate with your opponent or your opponent's attorney;
- File, serve, or mail anything on your behalf;
- Assist you if you are currently incarcerated, or
- Assist you with a criminal case.

The Program attorney may decline to assist you after interviewing you if:

- The Program attorney already has given advice to your opponent;
- Your legal problem is beyond the scope of the Program; or
- In the Program attorney's view, giving legal advice conflicts with any provision of the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct.

The Program operates by appointment and in-person only.
