

Labor & Employment Law Seminar

December 6, 2018

Noon-5:00 p.m.

Labor & Employment Law Seminar

*3.0 hours of Illinois and Wisconsin CLE credit
(applications pending)*

Stanley J. Roszkowski U.S. Courthouse

327 South Church Street

Courtroom 5200

Rockford, Illinois 61101

Course provided by the Federal Bar Association.

This event is free.

The P. Michael Mahoney Chapter of the Federal Bar Association is offering a free seminar on Labor and Employment Law.

The seminar will include three one-hour sessions on the following topics:

•Sexual Orientation Discrimination Under Title VII

Presented by Katherine Smith Kennedy

•National Labor Relations Board—Changes Under Trump and Recent Decisions

Presented by Martin Kappenman

•EEOC Update Including Harassment and Disability Issues

Presented by Diane Smason, Supervisory Trial Attorney, U.S. EEOC

A complimentary lunch will be provided by the Court.

Space is limited.

Please email bah.dspringerlaw@gmail.com to confirm your attendance.