

INITIAL STATUS REPORT

This case has been assigned to the calendar of Judge Manish S. Shah. The parties are directed to meet pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f) and conduct a planning conference. At least 3 business days before the initial status in this case, the parties shall jointly prepare and file an initial status report, containing the following information:

1. The Nature of the Case
 - a. Identify the attorneys of record for each party, including the lead trial attorney.
 - b. State the basis for federal jurisdiction.
 - c. Describe the nature of the claims asserted in the complaint and any counterclaims.
 - d. State the major legal and factual issues anticipated in the case.
 - e. Describe the relief sought by the plaintiff(s).
2. Mandatory Initial Discovery (Pilot Program)
 - a. Acknowledge familiarity with the Mandatory Initial Discovery Standing Order.
 - b. Confirm compliance with the mandatory initial discovery responses, or state the deadline for responses (30 days after filing of the answer). The parties must file a separate notice of service of their initial responses (but not the responses themselves).
 - c. Briefly describe any disputes concerning the mandatory initial discovery responses.
3. Pending Motions and Case Plan
 - a. Identify all pending motions
 - b. Submit a proposal for a discovery plan, including the following information:
 - i. The general type of discovery needed;
 - ii. A date for Rule 26(a)(1) disclosures;

- iii. A date to issue written discovery;
 - iv. A fact discovery completion date;
 - v. If there will be expert discovery, an expert discovery completion date, including dates for the delivery of expert reports; and
 - vi. A date for the filing of dispositive motions.
 - c. With respect to trial, indicate whether a jury trial is requested and the probable length of trial.
4. Consent to Proceed Before a Magistrate Judge
- a. Indicate whether the parties consent unanimously to proceed before a Magistrate Judge.
5. Status of Settlement Discussions
- a. Indicate whether any settlement discussions have occurred;
 - b. Describe the status of any settlement discussions; and
 - c. Whether the parties request a settlement conference.