

Prisoner Civil Rights Litigation Seminar

June 29, 2018

10 a.m.—2:00 p.m.

Introduction to Prisoners Civil Rights Litigation

3.0 hours of Illinois MCLE credit, including 0.5 hours of professionalism (application pending)

Followed by

Ethics Training presented by the Illinois ARDC

1.0 hour of Illinois MCLE credit

Stanley J. Roszkowski U.S. Courthouse

2nd Floor Jury Room

327 South Church Street

Rockford, Illinois 61101

Course is sponsored by the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois

Chief Judge Rubén Castillo and U.S. Magistrate Judge Iain Johnston will offer opening remarks.

Attorney Jim Chapman of the Illinois Institute for Community Law will facilitate "Introduction to Prisoners Civil Rights Litigation." If you have questions about the above portion of the training, please contact Jim Chapman at jamespchapman@aol.com

or (312) 593-6998

Immediately following
"Introduction to Prisoners Civil Rights Litigation," the Illinois
ARDC will provide a one hour Ethics training.

Seminar is free of charge. A complimentary lunch will be offered during the training.

Please RSVP to jamespchapman@aol.com if you plan to attend the seminar.