

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
Northern District of Illinois

TO ALL ATTORNEYS, ESPECIALLY THOSE RECENTLY ASSIGNED TO REPRESENT PRISONERS IN THEIR PRO SE CIVIL RIGHTS CASES:

THE COURT URGES YOU TO ATTEND “ANATOMY OF A PRISONER CIVIL RIGHTS CASE” (A WONDERFUL INTRODUCTION)-AND/OR “MEDICAL CLAIMS,” SPECIAL SEMINARS DESIGNED TO ASSIST RECENTLY ASSIGNED ATTORNEYS IN THESE INTERESTING BUT OFTEN CHALLENGING CASES AND ALL ATTORNEYS WITH AN INTEREST IN SUCH CASES.

THURSDAY, MAY 17, 2018
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURTHOUSE
219 S. DEARBORN ST. COURTROOM 1725

- 1. “ANATOMY” 9:30 A.M. TO 12:00 NOON
- 2. “MEDICAL CLAIMS”: 1:00 P.M. TO 3:30 P.M.

Many assigned attorneys have attended “Anatomy” and may wish to attend only “Medical Claims,” the most numerous and difficult prisoner cases. When you RSVP, indicate which seminar you wish to attend: one or both

THESE SEMINARS ARE FREE!!! LUNCH WILL BE SERVED. MCLE CREDIT HAS BEEN GRANTED FOR EACH SEMINAR

PLEASE ADVISE YOUR ASSOCIATES, ESP. THOSE WORKING ON THE CASE, TO ATTEND.

FACILITATORS (very experienced in this field):
James Chapman, Illinois Institute for Community Law
Alan Mills, Uptown People's Law Center

SPACE IS LIMITED (the topics are very popular, esp. for recently assigned attorneys)

Contact Jim Chapman for reservations or with questions.

E-mail: JamesPChapman@aol.com or 312/593-6998.

Please indicate which seminars you want to attend (e.g. both or Medical Claims only.)

Everyone is welcome: attorneys, legal assistants, law students, even if you have not been court-assigned or do not yet have a case.