District Court Information Officer Joel Daly to Receive Illinois Broadcast Pioneer Award

SPRINGFIELD – On Tuesday, June 17, 2008, the Illinois Broadcasters Association will pay tribute to District Court Information Officer Joel Daly by presenting him with the Illinois Broadcast Pioneer Award at the IBA’s 60th Anniversary Luncheon in Springfield, Illinois, honoring his 50-year career as a broadcast journalist. Mr. Daly and Art Kimball, an IHSA Sports Announcer, will be the first recipients of the newly created award, designed to honor successful Illinois broadcasting careers.

Commenting on Mr. Daly’s selection for the Award, Chief Judge James F. Holderman said, “We are very pleased that Joel Daly, a highly respected journalist and lawyer, will be receiving this Award from the Illinois Broadcasters Association. Since joining our court family as District Court Information Officer in March 2007, Joel has done a wonderful job serving as a liaison between the District Court and the media in connection with court matters including the many high profile cases in our court.”

On behalf of the Court, Chief Judge Holderman congratulates Mr. Daly on receiving the Illinois Broadcast Pioneer Award as recognition of his numerous outstanding achievements.
