The Human Resources Specialist provides a variety of human resources services to each Court and will report directly to the Human Resources Officer.

POSITION DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Duties and responsibilities will vary in progression dependent upon the selected candidate's current knowledge, skills, and abilities. The duties will include:

- Assisting the Human Resources Officer with administration of human resources programs and researching/developing personnel procedures for the courts. Maintaining human resources manuals for each court and recommending policy changes as appropriate in adherence to the Guide to Judiciary Policy.
- Participating in all facets of the recruitment process, including but not limited to, preparing vacancy announcements and position descriptions, reviewing applications, scheduling and conducting interviews, performing reference checks, and coordinating/conducting new-hire orientations.
- Providing information and guidance to judges, executives, managers, and staff regarding human resources matters, including but not limited to, personnel matters, benefits, and retirement programs.

- Processing human resources and payroll actions such as appointments, promotions, separations, terminations, within-grade increases, and changes to employee benefits. Verifying payroll changes and adjustments for accuracy.
- Establishing and maintaining a variety of human resources-related files, including individual human resources records, recruitment files, leave records, performance evaluations, standard forms for human resources, and payroll matters. Advising managers and staff on leave administration and tracking matters to ensure compliance with local and national policy and procedures.
- Greeting visitors/callers, answering questions, and receiving/screening/routing mail to appropriate persons/offices while maintaining the confidentiality of all matters.
- Assisting in the administration of employee recognition programs and transit subsidy programs.
- Monitoring and administering performance management plans for each court by ensuring that performance appraisals are completed as prescribed.
- Managing the background check and fingerprinting program for new employees and contractors.
- Processing credentials for new employees through the issuance of a Facility Access Card (FAC). Ensuring compliance with FAC guidelines and department procedures while maintaining all FAC related documents.
- Encouraging teamwork and presenting a positive image of the Courts.
- Performing a variety of other duties as assigned.

Diversity is important to the Judiciary. It is an essential component of services that the Judiciary is charged with providing to maintain justice, equality, fairness, respect, and dignity in society. To fulfill its duties, the Judiciary must include all members of society—not just regardless, but also inclusive of race, gender, disability, and the many other variables that make up the citizens of our nation. The Judiciary has a duty to promote a fair, just, and sustainable model of inclusive democracy and social justice that surpasses any governmental entity in the history of this nation or of any other nation.

In order to be eligible for employment, applicants must meet one of the following requirements:

- (1) U.S. citizen;
- (2) Person who owes allegiance to the U.S. (i.e., nationals of American Samoa, Swains Island and the Northern Mariana Islands);
- (3) Person admitted as a refugee or granted asylum who has filed a declaration of intention to become a lawful permanent resident and then a citizen when eligible; or
- (4) Lawful permanent resident (i.e., green card holder) who is seeking citizenship. A lawful permanent resident "seeking citizenship":
 - (a) May not apply for citizenship until he or she has been a permanent resident for at least five years (three years if seeking naturalization as a spouse of a citizen);
 - (b) Must apply for citizenship within six months of becoming eligible; and
 - (c) Must complete the process within two years of applying (unless there is a delay caused by the processors of the application).

The Courts reserve the right to modify the conditions of this job announcement, or to withdraw the announcement, any of which may occur without prior written or other notice.
