		Closing Date:	March 12, 2024

The United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois is now accepting applications for three Operations Specialists at the entry level with promotional potential upon successful training up to the target grade. Consideration will only be given to those who apply through the Court's online applicant tracking system and submit a cover letter, resume, and two professional references. To apply, please see the "Notice to Applicants" section listed below.

POSITION OVERVIEW

The U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois is currently accepting applications for three Operations Specialists for the entry level (grade 24) with potential growth to the target grade (grade 26). This is an entry level position, with potential to advance within the Clerk's Office. All positions are in the Clerk of Court office in Chicago, IL, and report directly to the Operations Supervisors. At the entry level (CL-24) the Operations Specialist performs a range of duties including receiving payments, assignment of cases, and mail screening. Once trained in the entry level, an Operations Specialist could advance to learn docketing of case filings and auditing of those files to ensure that they follow the Court's requirements. Once fully trained on docketing and auditing, the Operations Specialist can apply to learn to substitute as a courtroom deputy, support judges by attending court proceedings, recording pertinent results for minutes, and managing case documents. The progression through the grades is at the candidate's pace based on their initiative and ability to master the skills required to advance. Every grade level requires that you can successfully complete all the tasks in the lower grade level(s) and at least one year at the next lowest grade that you were hired into/promoted to. This position offers excellent opportunity for advancement, career growth and work life balance.

Diversity is important to the Judiciary. It is an essential component of services that the Judiciary is charged with providing to maintain justice, equality, fairness, respect, and dignity in society. To fulfill its duties, the Judiciary must include all members of society—not just regardless, but also inclusive of race, gender, disability, and the many other variables that make up the citizens of our nation. The Judiciary has a duty to promote a fair, just, and sustainable model of inclusive democracy and social justice that surpasses any governmental entity in the history of this nation or of any other nation.

To be eligible for employment, applicants must meet one of the following requirements:

- (1) U.S. citizen;
- (2) Person who owes allegiance to the U.S. (i.e., nationals of American Samoa, Swains Island, and the Northern Mariana Islands);
- (3) Person admitted as a refugee or granted asylum who has filed a declaration of intention to become a lawful permanent resident and then a citizen when eligible; or
- (4) Lawful permanent resident (i.e., green card holder) who is seeking citizenship. A lawful permanent resident "seeking citizenship":
 - (a) May not apply for citizenship until he or she has been a permanent resident for at least five years (three years if seeking naturalization as a spouse of a citizen);
 - (b) Must apply for citizenship within six months of becoming eligible; and
 - (c) Must complete the process within two years of applying (unless there is a delay caused by the processors of the application).

The Court reserves the right to modify the conditions of this job announcement, or to withdraw the announcement, any of which may occur without prior written or other notice.
