

Biography

United States Magistrate Judge Sunil R. Harjani was selected on September 27, 2018 and took his oath of office on January 10, 2019. Prior to assuming the bench, from September 2008 through January 2019, he was an Assistant United States Attorney and Deputy Chief of the Securities and Commodities Fraud Section for the U.S. Attorney's Office in Chicago, where he investigated and prosecuted complex white-collar crimes. During his time as a federal prosecutor, Judge Harjani tried numerous securities and commodities matters, and other complex fraud cases to verdict in this district, as well as argued multiple appeals on behalf of the United States before the Seventh Circuit.

Prior to that, Judge Harjani practiced federal civil litigation as a Senior Counsel at the U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission, as an associate at Jenner & Block, and as a federal judicial law clerk. Judge Harjani holds a Bachelor of Arts and a Juris Doctor degree from Northwestern University. He is currently an Adjunct Professor at Northwestern Law School where he teaches White Collar Crime and Civil Discovery Courses. Judge Harjani is also a trained and certified mediator, and previously conducted settlement conferences for the Cook County courts.

Judge Harjani is a fellow of Leadership Greater Chicago, a board member of the Federal Bar Association (Chicago Chapter), and active in leadership at the Northwestern Law School Alumni Board, the South Asian Bar Association, and other civic and bar organizations.
