The clerk shall indicate the available reimbursement on the voucher and forward it to the presiding judge for approval and signature. Should the voucher exceed $2,500.00, the clerk will forward it to the Chief District Judge for approval and signature. On receipt of the voucher from appropriate authority, the clerk shall promptly issue the required check in the amount indicated on the voucher form or up to the limit set by these regulations, whichever is lower. The written request must include the estimated additional expenses for which the assigned attorney will seek reimbursement in order to complete the matter. Upon approval, the assigned judge will forward the request to the chief judge for consideration. With the approval of the Chief District Judge, the request will be forwarded to the Executive Committee for review and approval.

The assigned judge, the Chief District Judge, or the Executive Committee may refuse to permit prepayment or disallow reimbursement of any expense based upon the absence of documentation that such expense is appropriate or reasonable or, where reimbursement is requested, was actually incurred.
