CHICAGO – The United States District Court’s Eighteenth Annual Awards for Excellence in Pro Bono and Public Interest Service is scheduled to begin at 3:00 p.m., Tuesday, May 1, 2018, in the James Benton Parsons Memorial Courtroom (2525) of the Everett McKinley Dirksen United States Courthouse at 219 South Dearborn Street in Chicago, Illinois. These awards will honor attorneys for their contributions in helping people most in need of assistance before the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. The program is open to all attorneys and those interested in pro bono and public interest law and is free of charge.

This annual ceremony recognizing pro bono and public interest service before the Court is sponsored jointly by the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois and the Chicago Chapter of the Federal Bar Association. Kip T. Bollin, the National President of the Federal Bar Association, will be the keynote speaker.

Kip Bollin is a graduate of New York University and Georgetown Law. He was admitted to the practice of law in 1995 and began his legal career as a law clerk to Hon. Sam H. Mr. Bollin joined the Board of the FBA’s Northern District of Ohio Chapter in 2003, and served as the chapter’s Younger Lawyers Committee Chair and CLE Committee Chair. After serving in other chapter officer positions, he was elected President of the NDOH Chapter for the 2010-11 term. Nationally, he has served on many committees and was the Chair of the Task Force for Review of Membership Growth and Benefits created by former president Bob DeSousa. Mr. Bollin was elected to the national FBA Board of Directors in 2012, and has since been elected Treasurer and President-elect of the Federal Bar Association.

Mr. Bollin is also the Chair of the Northern District of Ohio Advisory Group, a court-appointed panel charged with providing information on matters of interest to the court, assisting in the implementation of court-adopted programs, and bringing to the court’s attention matters of interest to the bar and the community. He previously served as co-chair of the group’s Civil Rules Committee.

The awards program will also feature comments and introductions by Chief Judge Rubén Castillo and Jordan P. Vick, President of the Chicago Chapter of the Federal Bar Association.
