

A COURT AT THE HEART OF AMERICA

200TH ANNIVERSARY OF
FEDERAL COURTS IN ILLINOIS

Bicentennial Celebration: March 1, 2019, 3:00 p.m.

JOIN THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS COURT COMMUNITY AS IT KICKS OFF THE 200TH
ANNIVERSARY OF FEDERAL COURTS IN ILLINOIS

Harold Washington Library Center

400 South State Street

Chicago, Illinois

Emmy Award and Edward R. Murrow Award-winning journalist Phil Rogers, who has covered the Court for decades, will offer remarks. U.S. Senator Dick Durbin will receive special recognition and is scheduled to attend. The celebration will also include highlights from a new inspirational documentary film highlighting the places, cases, and people that have shaped our court and the community. A reception will follow.

Following the March 1 event, the Court's Bicentennial Anniversary will be celebrated throughout the year with panel discussions, CLE programs, a law review symposium, and a lecture series
